Web Developer

EDUCATION

The British University in Egypt
September 2014 – June 2018
Graduated from the British University in Egypt and having a Bachelor of Computer Science majoring in Software Engineering in June 2018

London South Bank
September 2014 – June 2018
While studying at the British University in Egypt, i was at something called UK track which allows you by the end of your degree to get a similar degree from the London South Bank university as if you have studied there, so basically i have two degrees in computer science, one from Egypt and the other from the UK.
